PRESS RELEASE

Seal Beach Police Seeking the Public's Assistance: Indecent Exposure Suspect at Elementary School

Seal Beach, CA. – The Seal Beach Police are seeking assistance from the public in identifying an indecent exposure suspect. On Friday, January 26th at approximately 3:15 pm an adult, Caucasian male was seen on the campus of McGaugh Elementary School. Two adolescent females saw the suspect standing inside a bathroom exposing his genitals.

The suspect had been seen a few minutes prior following the females and appeared to be pretending to talk on his cell phone. The suspect passed the females and entered a bathroom on campus. As the females passed by the bathroom, they saw the suspect standing inside the bathroom with his pants and underwear pulled down around to his knees. The suspect did not say or do anything. The females immediately reported the incident to School Administration, who summoned the police. A search of the area was conducted for the suspect, but he was not located.

The suspect is described as a male, Caucasian, approximately 20-30 years old, approximately 5' 9" tall, with medium build, brown or black hair. He was wearing a gray or green flannel shirt, black jeans and black Vans shoes.

Anyone with information about this incident is asked to call Seal Beach Police Detective Jeff Gibson at (562) 799-4100 Ext. 1109.
