***PRESS RELEASE*** Phone Scam

SEAL BEACH, CA: The Seal Beach Police Department wants to remind all residents to be wary of phone scams, and those soliciting for charities. Seal Beach Police have been receiving reports of a phone scam targeting Seal Beach residents. The callers claim to represent an unidentified California firefighter group and are asking for “donations.” Various phone numbers are being used to call residents and most of these phone numbers are not traceable. Please do not provide any money via telephone.

For more information about phone scams, go to the Federal Trade Commission website at, <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/>

Report any suspected telephone scams to the Seal Beach Police Department at (562) 799-4100.
