

Orange County Workforce Development Board

LAYOFF AVERSION SUPPORT PROGRAM

The OCWDB Layoff Aversion Support Program was launched to financially help local small businesses mitigate layoffs and adhere to “social distancing” provisions.

Eligible businesses can receive
UP TO $10,000
IN GRANT FUNDS

YOUR BUSINESS MAY BE ELIGIBLE FOR THE OCWDB LAYOFF AVERSION PROGRAM IF YOUR BUSINESS...

Has a workforce of 500 or fewer employees

Has good standing with the State of California and is up-to-date on Unemployment Insurance (UI) taxes

Pays employees minimum wage or more

Due to the overwhelming response to the first round of funding, businesses are STRONGLY ENCOURAGED to review the application requirements and process in advance.

Applications open August 3, 2020 at 9 a.m. PST and close on August 6, 2020 at 5 p.m. PST or until maximum applications are received, whichever comes first.
