What is an ADU?

An Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADU) is a smaller, secondary residence on a lot that already has a home, or has one under construction. ADUs serve various needs for homeowners, including housing elderly or young adult family members and caregivers or increasing household income as a rental outside of the family.

AFFORDABLE ADU LOAN PROGRAM

Orange County Housing Finance Trust

The Orange County Housing Finance Trust is excited to offer the only subsidized construction-to-permanent loan specifically for Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs) for Orange County homeowners. In this innovative loan program, homeowners looking to add a rental to their property agree to lease their new ADU to a very low-income tenant for 10 years. In return, they receive a deferred, low-interest, and partially forgivable loan of $100,000 to reduce their construction costs, with delayed payment for up to 20 years.

How to Apply
