Autism Awareness Month

SEAL BEACH, CA: April is recognized as Autism Awareness Month. To show support to the autism community, Seal Beach Police Officers and professional staff will be wearing a special Autism Awareness patch on their uniforms during the month of April. Patrol cars will also be adorned with a magnetic decal. The patches are available for sale to the public for $10 each. Proceeds from the sale of the patches will be donated to an organization within the autism community.

For more information about how the Seal Beach Police Department is supporting autism awareness month or to purchase a patch, please contact Corporal Joe Garcia at (562) 799-4100 ext. 1649 or jfgarcia@sealbeachca.gov.
