Senior Transportation Shuttle FAQ

Is 4p.m. the last pick up or when the service ends?

Service ends at 4pm, making the 3pm loop the last loop. Make sure to plan accordingly. (i.e. if going to Ralph's and need a return trip, plan on being at the Ralph's pick-up location no later than 3:40 PM for the last trip going back.

Can I wave the shuttle down if I'm not at a designated pick-up/drop-off location?

No, the shuttle will only stop at the designated location so please plan accordingly.

Do I need to wear a mask/face covering on the shuttle?

Yes. The current CA Guidelines require that all users wear masks/face coverings on all transit services.

What if I miss the last pick up?

The shuttle service is done at 4pm, so you may need to find an alternate ride home if the shuttle is missed.

Why can't the shuttle take me to Trader Joe's?

Trader Joe's is outside of the City Limits, and the shuttle can only go to the designated locations in the City.

Can my caregiver ride along? Yes, each registered user can bring 1 caregiver.

Is Target an official stop at the Shops of Rossmoor? Yes, it is! Riders can be picked up and dropped off at Target.

When can I expect the shuttle at the Shops at Rossmoor?

The listed time on the schedule is the when the shuttle is expected to be at Ralph's (the 1st of 4 stops), and riders can expect the shuttle at the other stops a few minutes after the scheduled time.

When can I expect the shuttle in Leisure World?
